Tatting

I've recently been bitten by the Celtic Tatting Bug, thanks to Rozella Linden. I have been busy tatting all the Celtic type designs I can find. Here are a few of them, more will be posted later.

I have been teaching tatting at my local yarn shop. My students want to learn Celtic Tatting as in Rozella Linden's new book, so I have been working all the patterns. This is what I have done so far.
